We are living in exponential times...
... the speed of change is
unimaginable and accelerating

Years it took to reach 50 million users:

Telephone - 75 years

Radio - 38 years

TV - 13 years

Internet - 4 years

Instagram Threads - 24 hours

If 22 year-old Facebook were a country . . .

. . . it would be the largest country in the world

. . . MORE THAN TWICE the size of China and India, and 8.8 times bigger than the U.S.

Longevity Escape Velocity (LEV)

AI will extend your remaining life expectancy (not life expectancy at birth) longer than the time that is passing. (i.e., you have another year of life for each year you live.)

Your Main Objective

“Don’t die from something stupid” in the next 5-10 years until we reach
Longevity Escape Velocity

45% of U.S. Adults would rather live in the past while only 14% would prefer living in the future

If they could choose, about 3 times as many Americans would want to live in past as in future

% who say that if they could choose, they would live ...

- 50 or more years in the past
- Less than 50 years in the past
- In the present
- Less than 50 years in the future
- 50 or more years in the future

Why Is Knowing and Living Your WHY Critical?

A close-up photograph of a puzzle piece. The puzzle piece is light blue and is missing, revealing a red, textured surface underneath. The word "WHY?" is printed in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters on the red surface. The puzzle pieces around the missing one are also light blue and have a slightly glossy finish.

WHY?

Why?

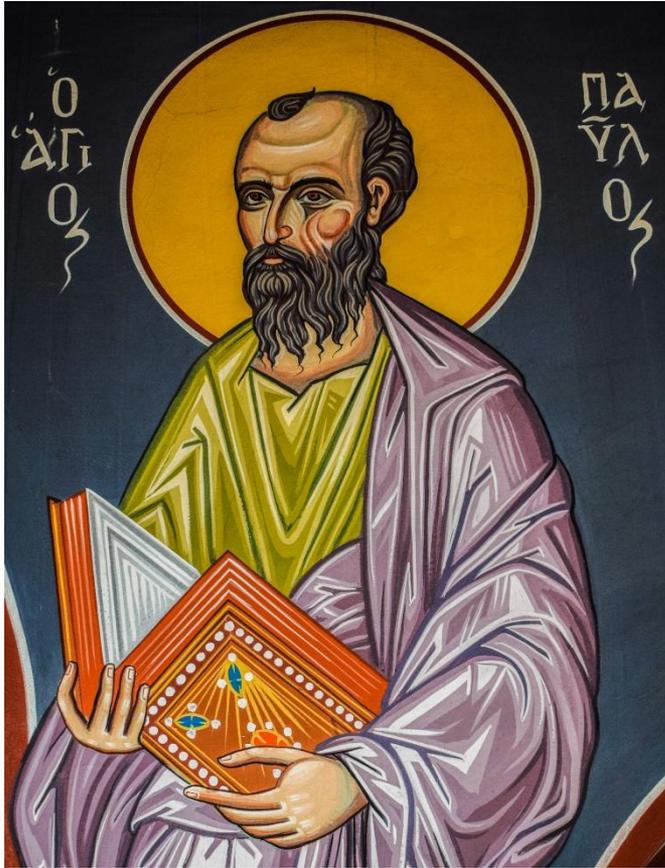

“That the end of our lives may be Christian, without pain, blameless and peaceful,

and for a good account before the awesome judgment seat of Christ.”

II Corinthians 5:10

My Obsession
With
WHY

“I beg you to live worthy of the calling to which you have been called.”

Ephesians 4:1

“Two of the most important days of your life are:

First, the day you were born; and

Second, the day you figure out why.”

Mark Twain

My 1981 WHY Statement as a lawyer

Elevator Pitch to Prospects

What is a sales prospect interested in? Solutions to problems. With that in mind, your elevator pitch to a sales prospect should highlight how your product serves or solves your client's problems.

Bill Marianes is a transactional attorney with the law firm Troutman Sanders in Atlanta. When people ask him what he does for a living, he says, "I'm a problem solver and dream facilitator." That's appropriate, because when people come to see a lawyer, he says, they either have a problem or something they want to accomplish. After hearing the Marianes elevator pitch, prospective clients are always lured into asking him more detail about what he does.

He never responds to the question, "What do you do?" with "I'm an attorney." That kind of response, he says, means, "I'm stuck with whatever box they put all the attorneys and lawyers in. I don't have a chance to distinguish myself."

"I'm a problem solver
and dream facilitator"

“Finding Your “One Thing””

1. What do I want to be remembered for?
2. What would my ideal life look like?
3. What is my deepest source of inspiration
4. What legacy do I want to leave?

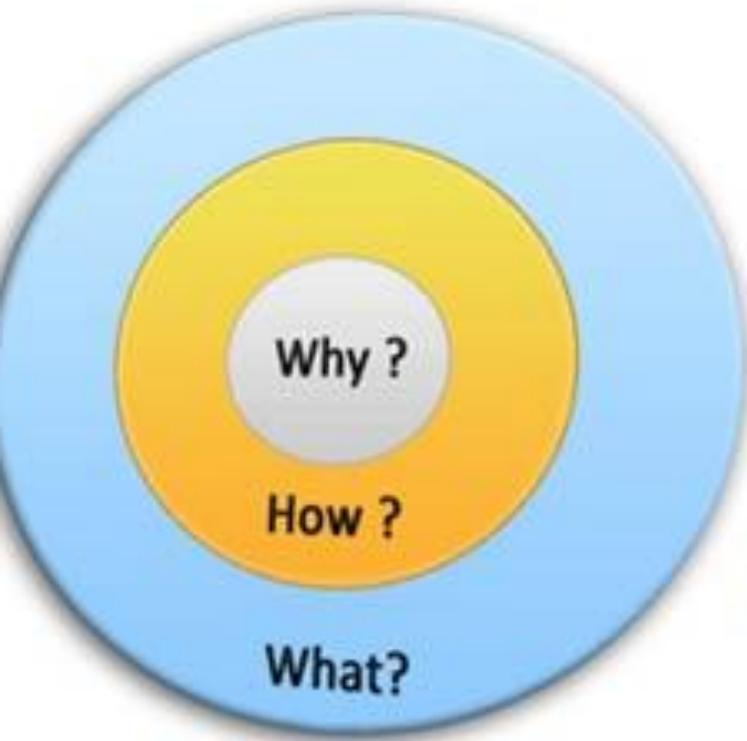

Stephen Covey's Funeral Exercise

(Habit 2: Begin with the End in Mind" from The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People.)

- 1. Imagine 4 Speakers At Your Funeral - a family member, friend, work colleague, community member.
- 2. Reflect On Their Words
 - What do I want them to say about my life?"
 - What of my qualities did they most admire?
 - What did I contribute to their lives?
 - What kind of relationships did I form?
 - What legacy did I leave behind?
- 3. Write Your Own Eulogy - Compare your vision to your current life. Identify gaps between what you want to be remembered for and how you are living now?
- 4. Identify Areas For Change - Set new goals and intentions for your life. Adjustment that align your daily habits with your deepest values.

Simon Sinek's “Golden Circle”

Why = The Purpose

What is your cause? What do you believe?

How = The Process

Specific actions taken to realize the Why.

What = The Result

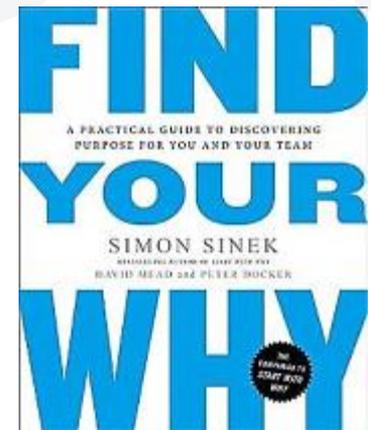

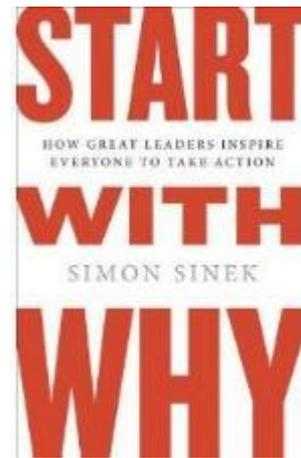

What do you do? The result of Why. Proof.

“People don’t buy-in to what you do. They buy-in to why you do it.”

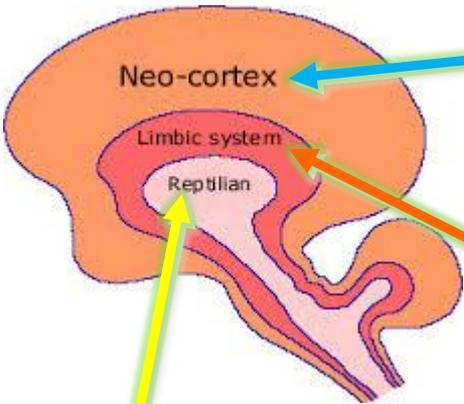

Simon Sinek

“But if you don’t know why you do what you do, how will you inspire anyone else to follow you?”

1 More Infinite Thought

You are playing an ∞ game...

1 MORE INFINITE THOUGHT

...not a finite game.

FINITE GAME

- ~ players are known
- ~ rules are fixed
- ~ endpoint is clear
- ~ winners and losers are easily identified

(like football or chess)

INFINITE GAME

- ~ rules are changeable
 - ~ there is no defined endpoint
 - ~ players come and go
 - ~ there are no winners or losers
 - ~ there is only ahead and behind

(like life itself)

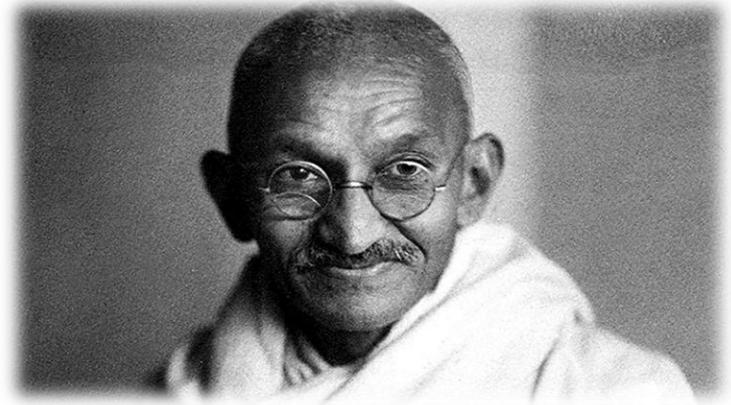

You're Never Too Old To Begin Again

Change
is coming

Now What?

“Live as if you
were to die
tomorrow. Learn as if you were
to live forever.”

Mahatma Gandhi

“A society

Greek Proverb

“The best time to plant a tree was 20 years
ago.

The second best time is today.”

Words may inspire, but only ACTION creates change. Most of us live our lives by accident - we live life as it happens. Fulfillment comes when we live our lives on purpose.
